

I writing you in response to a radio station I listen to daily, K-Love. It is the only station in my state that provides this type of up lifting heart felt radio. I feel this is important to our population to have access to this type of radio if they so choose for obvious reasons. I hope you can see that limiting this is not acceptable.